

I simply cannot believe that an agency of a democratic government that is so proud of our democratic tradition could possibly conceive of allowing ownership of the broadcast media to become controlled by the few. The ramifications are earth shattering and I sincerely hope that common sense prevails and this docket goes into the trash bin where it belongs.